

Draw a line to the person the sentence describes. Some might describe both.

ELIJAH

ELISHA

He was a prophet.

He learned from
the other.

He was like a father
to the other.

He took a cloak,
rolled it up, and hit the
water with it to cross
the Jordan River.

He asked for a double
portion of the other
other's spirit.

He was taken to Heaven
in a chariot of fire.

God chose him to take the other one's place as the prophet
for the people.

