Read the Word: Revelation 4:1—5:14

Disciple Your Family: Discuss ways we can worship God the Father and Christ the Son this week.

Discuss the following Key Truths and how to apply them to life. Use the questions to spark discussion.

Key Truth: God the Father, Our Holy Creator, Is Worthy of Worship
(Revelation 4:1-11)

APPLY: When times are tough, consider what life will be like with God in Heaven.

- How does this passage help shape our understanding of who God is?
- What fears tend to shrink when we remember that God is not absent but reigning?

APPLY: Worship our holy God now, knowing that one day you will join the heavenly hosts before His throne.

- In Revelation 4, worship is constant and God-centered. What tends to compete for your attention and affection instead?
- The elders cast their crowns before the throne. What “crowns” (achievements, status, control) are hardest for us to lay down?

APPLY: Worship our powerful God for the variety and beauty of His creation.

- How does the truth that God created “all things” shape our understanding of His power and authority? How should this shape our view of human value and dignity?
- How should recognizing God as Creator shape the way we approach Him in worship?

Key Truth: Christ the Son, Our Crucified Redeemer, Is Worthy of Worship
(Revelation 5:1-14)

APPLY: Worship Jesus, the Promised Messiah foretold by the prophets.

- How do the titles “Lion of Judah” and “Lamb who was slain” reveal both Jesus’ kingly authority and His redeeming sacrifice?
- What would be missing from our understanding of Jesus if we emphasized only the Lion and ignored the Lamb—or vice versa?
- How should Jesus’ kingly authority and sacrificial love shape the tone and focus of our worship?

APPLY: Worship Jesus, the Lamb who was slain to save us.

- How do the Old Testament sacrifices prepare us to understand the meaning of Jesus' death? (The blood of a substitute was shed so people's sins could be forgiven; Jesus paid the penalty for all our sins by shedding His blood on the cross once for all; etc.)
- Singing can be a form of worship, but why does worship go far beyond singing? What does worship look like in our day-to-day lives?
- How should the truth that Jesus was slain for sinners shape the way we praise Him?

Build a foundation: Discussion questions for elementary age students.

- God is worthy of our worship. What are some things that compete for your attention and affection over God?
- How can you keep God as the top priority in your life?
- What are some ways, other than singing, that show your worship for Jesus?

Work together to memorize the Verse of the Month: John 11:25.

Discuss This Week's Building Block:

Only God is worthy of our worship.

Everyday Extras:

God and His Son, the Lamb, deserve our highest praise and adoration. It is a privilege and honor to be able to do so, and it shows Him our gratefulness for all He has given us and does for us. Listen to worship songs while in the car and talk about how the lyrics help us remember the reasons why we can and should worship Him. Find songs that teach God's Word and sing them with family members. Teaching Scripture to your children helps engrain God's Word into their minds to remind them of why we praise God.

Preschool Highlights:

Today your child learned the Bible teaches us that Heaven is a real place, but it is different from our home on earth. Heaven has a street of what looks like pure gold, beautiful buildings made from precious stones, and pearl gates. Jesus is in Heaven, and one day He will return to earth. Those who love and follow Him will live in Heaven forever. Heaven Is Our Home.
