

Adventure Kids Tips

1. Check out the Weekly Teaching Essential List to help you in preparation for the quarter. While your Teaching Guide lists items needed for each lesson, this list can help you at the front end of the quarter to help you know which Teaching Essentials are needed for each lesson.
2. To ensure the health of the students in your classroom, set up an area with plenty of tissues and hand sanitizer. Purchase extra cans of Lysol to use after each class to kill any germs. Remind parents if their child has run a fever in the previous 24 hours, he or she should remain at home to prevent the spreading of illnesses.
3. Did you know the Teaching Guide is available online? A code is provided in the Teaching Resources that allows access to the PDFs of the lessons.
4. As you begin this next calendar year, consider creating a prayer journal for your class. Purchase a special spiral bound notebook or decorate a 3-ring binder to use. Each week, write the date and any prayer requests. Read back through the requests once a month and note if they have been answered yet.
5. The Teaching Essentials are available in four different translations. Your students may not have the translation you are using in their homes. Download and copy the sheet with the application verses for the quarter and send home with the students. Encourage them to review the verses at home and find ways to apply God's Word to their lives.

Welcome to the new D6 EveryDay Curriculum! Here are a few helpful hints and ideas to help you get started!

1. Page 2 explains the ideology for D6 EveryDay Curriculum and what is included in the Teaching Guide.
2. Page 3 explains the five steps around which each lesson is built. It also explains the additional features included in each lesson.
3. Page 4 tells what is included in the Teaching Resources. It also provides additional information on Adventure Guide, the devotional magazine for the students in this age group.
4. Pages 5-6 provide general guidelines and principles regarding to talking with children about Spiritual matters including how to lead them to Christ.
5. Upon receiving the Teaching Resources, cut apart the Teaching Pictures along the dotted lines. Make a copy of all reproducibles and Field Notes at the beginning of the quarter. Be sure to always have a few extras for visitors. Create an organizational system that works best for you and your classroom.
6. Browse through the Teaching Guide at the beginning of the quarter, and utilize the Preparation Checklist provided for every lesson. It is a list of what is needed for the different parts of the lesson, whether it is a Teaching Essential, a common classroom item, or one that needs to be obtained prior to class. Make a list of any supplies you will need for the quarter on large sticky notes and attach them to the front of the teaching guide so they are a visible reminder of what is needed. Be sure you have them all and know where they are so they will be easily accessible when you need them. Try to obtain any that are needed for the quarter as soon as possible to avoid the last-minute frustration of not being able to find an item.
7. Also, at the beginning of the quarter, take note of any monologues or dramas that require additional help or assistance. Be sure to give the persons doing the monologues or dramas plenty of advance notice as well as a friendly reminder as the date approaches.

8. The Field Notes are a weekly link between the class and home. The worksheet side is to be utilized while teaching the lesson. Two options are provided—one designed for younger student and the other for older ones. The other side is designed to reinforce what was taught in the classroom to help continue the conversation at home. It includes the family theme, Scripture studied, the application verse that is being learned, a simple summary of what was taught, and a challenge for the student to live out what God's Word says. It also provides a Bible Basics topic for families to talk about and an activity for families to do together.
9. Included in the Adventure Kids Teaching Resources is a copy of the quarter's student devotional magazine for this age group, Adventure Guide. Use it to help encourage your students to spend time every day in God's Word and applying what they've learned to their lives. Use the different jokes, crafts, recipes, and articles included in the magazine as a springboard for conversation with your students.
10. Pray each day for your students and that God will use you to teach His Word.
